

HR Assessment

Our solutions help you maximize the performance of your prospective and current personnel.

Our HR Assessment Solutions will help you select top talent and direct your investment in the training and development of all employees.

Screening, Selection, Training and Development Assessments

ILS Assessment offers a series of Screening, Selection, and Training and Development Assessments which enable you to quickly and easily identify strengths and weaknesses of candidates and employees at every level. ILS Assessment's support your efforts to hire the best people, are a valuable tool for identifying existing talent within your company, and provide you with the information you need to target your training and development resources.

1. ILS Assessment Professional Assessment Solutions assess and identify:
2. Skills for specific job functions
3. Candidates with high risk work-related attitudes and behaviors
4. Behavioral interviewing questions on an individual's suitability for a particular position
5. Values, behavior or work-style of an individual
6. Perceptions based upon feedback from supervisors, peers and direct reports
7. Training and development needs through custom surveys

We offer series of Screening Assessment solutions that enables:

1. Honesty and integrity screening
2. Cognitive and interpersonal competencies
3. Office Skills Assessment – series of basic skills assessments
4. Microsoft Office® Skills Assessment – series of tests on each MS Office program
5. Selection Assessments