

FUTURE PERFECT

Induction Program made easy. ILS Training delivers.

The Issue: Our client a large NASDAQ listed IT Services company approached us as they were concerned that their induction training program were not preparing new employees adequately for their new roles. They were looking for in-site training solution that will equip their new recruits for the challenging tomorrow. The ideal mix they were seeking for was complete “Life Skills” solutions clubbed with extensive activities.

The Solution: ILS Training along with it's internal vertical specific consultant's designed a 2 day induction program purely based on life skills. The solution was piloted rigorously for 3 days at ILS office. After which, the complete exercise was carried out on a fresh batch of recruits. Result: and excellent  (5 Star rating).

Today ILS is the preferred solution partner for the client. To know more about our life skills programs login to <http://training.ilsnetwork.org>
